

Servicing employers in the security industry.

The Building Service Contractors Association of Australia (BSCAA) was established 40 years ago and is a recognized national employer organization, whose purpose is to foster and encourage the growth of the building services industry, which includes contract cleaning & security.

BSCAA's Security Division offers three categories of membership:

Core: Companies directly involved in the security industry including but not limited to manpower, surveillance, manufacturers of security products, installers and repairers of security equipment.

Non core: Companies whose major business is not security manpower services but employ one or more security personnel; consultants to the industry and training companies.

Individual: Employees in the security industry. This is an information only service.

Membership requirements-

- ⇒ Your application must be accompanied by evidence of business registration, public liability insurance & if you employ staff, workers' compensation insurance (this evidence is required every year with renewal)
- ⇒ All Master Licence holders are required to sign & adhere to the NSW Security Industry Code of Practice.

Members receive:

- ⇒ Membership Certificate & BSCAA Code of Practice, which must be displayed in your office
- ⇒ Copy of the current Award & current wage rates
